A GIFT for YOU

Todder

Men's Leather Belt with Monogram

The craftsmen at Todder believe that quality can't be rushed. So they make men's belts and wallets by hand, with a keen attention to detail and an eye on local accents. The leather goods from their New England studio are built to last, and handcrafted to wear in beautifully over time and with use. Monograms give them a sophisticated and personalized upgrade, too.

Founder Ted Harriss and his crew carefully select vegetable tanned leather that's sourced from the U.S. and France. To keep the quality high—and to maintain focus on locally sourced materials—the hand stitching is done with thread made in Maine, and the wallets are sealed with Vermont beeswax. The belts are finished with sturdy, solid brass hardware that adds a distinguished touch to the classic designs.

Each leather piece is crafted with care and made for a lifetime, from a quaint Massachusetts town to you.

This Grommet is a customized product made to order just for you. We're working on your gift right now, and production takes several days. We're sure you'll love it when it arrives.
